

April 2017

It's April, which means my time in the classroom with your kiddos is drawing to a close. It's a bittersweet time for me! Right now, my last day in the classroom has been moved up to April 13th, due to medical reasons. I will still be around campus for the remainder of the month, helping in the office and wherever else I'm needed. Thank you for being patient and understanding during this transition
